

ST. LOUIS WINS IN CLOSE BATTLE

Tesreau Weakens Towards Close,
Allowing Two Runs to Score Against Him.

GIANTS LEAD TILL EIGHTH

Pinch Hitters Fail in Attempt to Stem Tide—Sallee in Form.

New York, May 21.—St. Louis won the second game of the series to-day, nosing out the Giants, 4 to 3, in a closely contested game. The visitors trailed until the eighth, when, with two on, Tesreau dodged Konetchy's hot liner and both runners scored. Tesreau pitched a good game, holding the cards to four hits, but he passed five men. Sallee was hit hard when it didn't hurt the score.

The feature of the game was the base running of both teams, no less than nine bases being stolen off Winsor and Wilson. Horvath and Whitted were especially successful. The score:

CUBS BEAT BRAVES

Boston, May 21.—The Cubs hit Ross hard to-day and won a close contest from the Braves, 5 to 3. The visitors early got a lead, scoring four runs in the third inning off a series of hits by Sauer and Leach and home run by Zimmerman.

Reubach lost control in the eighth and Boston took advantage of the opportunity to start a rally. Five runs were pushed in before Cheney was substituted to stop them. The fielding of Manager Evers, who figured in four double plays, featured the game. The score:

Chicago, May 21.—To sum up the coast boxing situation:

Bud Anderson, wearing mourning on his left eye, and with some $2,000 sewed in the lining of his vest, will depart for Medford, Ore., to-morrow, leaving Manager Dick Donald behind to arrange future matches.

Joe Mandet, his left rack of his ribs knocked all out of gear, will remain at his seashore cottage until he has been poulticed back to his old-time strength and beauty. Mandet's temporary retirement is announced. He is not to box again until after January 1, 1914.

Ad Volgaast and Johnny Dundee, boxing at catch weights, are to be the principals in the next card, meeting in a scheduled twenty-round go before the Pacific A. C. at Vernon, on the night of June 10.

Joe Rivers, appreciating the fact that he has been picked by Billy Nolan as Willie Ritchie's opponent for Fourth of July, insists that Promoter McCarey either come to an agreement with the lightweight or release him (Rivers) from all promises, so that he can go to San Francisco and fight before Eddie Graney's Club.

REDS FALL BEFORE SEATON

Philadelphia, May 21.—Cincinnati was powerless before Seaton's pitching this afternoon, and Philadelphia pounded the visitors' twirlers all over the lot, the Phillies winning in easy fashion by the score of 12 to 0. The Quakers hit Johnson, Harter and Smith for twenty hits, while Seaton held the "Reds" down to three hits. Every man on the Phillies got a hit with the exception of Doolan. Cravath's batting was the feature of the game, the right fielder hitting easily the five times he came to bat, sending in seven runs. The score:

PIRATES WALLOP SUPERBAS

Brooklyn, May 21.—The Pirates continued their work of making Brooklyn fans gloomy by taking the second game from the Dodgers to-day, 5 to 2. Adams occupied the mound for the visitors, and, except for the fourth inning, was never in trouble. In the fourth Stengel walked and Kirkpatrick hit the ball to the center field fence for a home run. Brooklyn started things with a rush when Moran, first up, tripled, but Adams settled down and held him at third. In the ninth Fisher was safe on a fumble, and Calhoun, batting for Ragon, doubled, but again fast fielding prevented a score.

Pittsburgh scored in the second on a pass, a sacrifice and Byrne's single, in the sixth on Vio's double and Wagner's single and three in the eighth frame on a single, two punk errors and a "squeeze play." The score:

Keating a Yankee Player

Ray Keating, the classy young pitching recruit with the New York Yankees, who twirled Manager Frank Chance's crippled team to its first two victories in the 1913 season, Keating scored the first victory of his big league career against the world's champion Boston Red Sox. His second win was over the no less formidable Philadelphia Athletics, which team he humbled to the tune of 4 to 0.
